

--2-----The next ISVD - to be published in June 2011

Dear Colleague,

We will be publishing the next issue of the International Sound and Vibration Digest (ISVD) early in the second week of June 2011. We would like to invite you to send us news items and technical information for inclusion in this June issue if possible by June, 3 2011. Please only send short items of text, since we presently cannot include any figures. These can be provided in appropriate links as necessary. Please send news items and/or comments to Margarita Maksotskaya at mam0066@auburn.edu Acceptable items include information on recent research grants and activities, new books and publications, honours and awards, news of scientific societies, specialized conferences, etc.

We published the previous three issues of ISVD in the second weeks of December 2010, February and April 2011. These December ,February and April Issues of the ISVD are now available for IIAV member on the: www.iiav.org . We would appreciate some feedback from you on what you liked and/or did not like about the last issues of the ISVD.

We look forward to hearing from you soon,

Malcolm
